From The Helm – Commander Alick Elliott

(fc@cgauxboca.org)

We are at war, and Station Lauderdale is asking for a lot of help from the Auxiliary. They need many different kinds of help, so I will list them and give you information on each. Before I do this I want to tell you about a meeting with the DCP, DVP, all the FC's and FVC's, SO-Ops and Lt Powell and PO Doug Schubert from Station Lauderdale. Recently communication between the Station and the Auxiliary has not been effective, mainly because the Station is shorthanded and extremely busy. It was, therefore, decided to appoint an Auxiliary Coordinator (AC) to act as a liaison between Division 3 and Station Lauderdale. We have an excellent volunteer for the job, namely Steve Burg from flotilla 32 who spent many years in the Coast Guard and retired as a Commander. He will spend 3 days a week at the Station and will interface with the Station Commanding Officer, Lt Powell, Operations Officer Senior Chief Gibson and other members of the staff as required. This means that FC's will have someone to call at the Station who is dedicated to establishing a close liaison between the Station and the Auxiliary. Now for the help that is needed:

1. Cat's Eye: This is a Port Surveillance System that under the present conditions requires to be manned 24/7. Any BQ qualified Auxiliarist who can use a computer mouse can be trained to do this job. The basic training is one to two hours. The shifts are 4 hours and can be done any time of the day or night 7 days a week. Bob Madden is our flotilla-training officer, just give him your name and a range of times you can be available. He will then arrange a convenient time to train at Station Lauderdale, after which you can be scheduled for watches by the AC at times, convenient for you.
2. Gate Guard at Station Lauderdale: This again requires only BQ qualification, but is required to be manned 24/7. The "Coasties" currently carrying out this task are unarmed, and so will the Auxiliary. There is an enclosed Gate House fitted out with a Nextel phone, which allows for instant communication with the Ops. Room. Every Visitor has to be identified and cleared by the Ops Room before the Electric Gate is opened.
3. Watchstanders: In order to be trained as a Watchstander, you must first of all be qualified as Auxcom in the Auxiliary. Then you have to attend a course on Monday nights for about 8 weeks. There is a course starting on March 29th but you could probably join a week later. If you are interested call Pat Feighery or me for details.
4. Boat Patrols: Port Security patrols in Port Everglades can be scheduled any time of the day. If you wish to do one Patrol in the afternoon and another one the next morning, or perhaps an 8 hour patrol on one day, prior arrangements can be made through the AC, for boats to dock overnight at the station. However, accommodation for crew cannot be provided because there is "No room at the Inn". So this will probably exclude boats without accommodation. At the next meeting I expect to have a representative from Station Lauderdale who will go into details of what we should be looking for while we are on Patrol, where we should be looking, and when and how to inform the Station.

The "Speaker of the Month" for April is Captain Ryan, a Port Everglades Pilot. Come and hear him, I am sure you will find his presentation very interesting. We have had between 60 and 70 people at every meeting this year. The meetings have been interesting, informative and finished by 8.45pm. That is what you asked for. Now let's see some faces that we haven't seen in a long time. You never know you might enjoy it.

These are very chaotic times in our lives. The members are asking what can I do to help? The flotilla would expect nothing else, as we are all volunteers. Division is going to have a meeting with Station Ft Lauderdale so they can prioritize their needs. This information will be available to you at our next meeting. Some things are “absolutely positively for sure necessary” and some will be “it would be nice if.” We shall do everything in our power to assist the station with their needs.

Turning to more normal affairs, the bridge promised to give you quarterly reports. While the first quarter is not officially over we need your help in gathering data. The list below this article is an Auxdata report. This report is a unit operational report (patrols and watchstanding) for Flotilla 36. If your name does not appear or the hours you are credited with are not correct contact Gerry Edeleman, our IS (Information System) officer and supply him with the necessary forms to correct the database. If the report is accurate because no errors were made the bridge will be able to accurately give you a State of the Flotilla report. God Bless the United States of America!

On Sat. March 8, at 1300 an Operation Work shop took place. 74 members were present.

Please Take Notice

We will have a make up workshop on Sat. April 5 0900 at base, there are several members who need this before 1 June, 2003, After this date orders or operational hours will not be credited to you.

At this work shop Annual Currency Maintenance will be explained (REYR, WKYR.) and how to handle the new forms.

The workshop will focus on some of the new criteria in which the AUX will participate in the future.

Type of patrols that are now a variable:

- Incident Command Center
- So, You are the On Scene Commander
- Crew Resource Management
- Interactive Case study ( training scenarios)
- Auxiliary Communications ( record keeping , reporting, plotting)

Our new Crew people (17) are now able to go on vessel and continue their training. They are assign to patrol vessel as trainees. Each of these trainees has some tasks that need to be sign off when on patrol. Coxswains please review the boat crew manual for each.

A Risk Management workshop will replace TCT. For our members in operations our Risk Management workshop will be held in May at our base.

All members in the vessel examiner class have taken the exam and only need to do 5 inspections (and I understand from Tony Elvas FSO/VE that this is underway) there are only 2 members left. One of the largest Vessel Examiners Class in recent years GREAT JOB TONY

Members who wish to become Coxswains should take this course.

A Navigation course has started on Tuesday Evenings at 7.P.M. This is the AUXOP course on Navigation (schedule in log)

This upcoming Memorial Day, we should honor those who have given their lives for us. Please try to attend any Memorial Day ceremony.

Flotilla 36 traditionally participates. Contact Alick or Mike to add your name to the list of attendees.

Public Education

We held a Boating Safety Course on March 15, and 22 students completed the one-day class. My appreciation goes to instructors Mike Hanuschak, Mike Gardner, and Lenny Schwartz and aids Sandy and Mike Gardner. This course is a long day for everyone, but thanks to the enthusiasm and helpfulness of instructors and aids, the students rated it very high and expressed their appreciation for the course.

We also held a successful one-day GPS class on March 22 with 10 people attending. Instructors Tom Kegan and Art Makenian and aids Gail and Jerry Edelman once again provided this introduction to electronic navigation, and a salesman from West Marine brought GPS models to demonstrate.

Underway: The Advanced Coastal Navigation class started on March 24 with 16 students (member and non-members) and will continue until June 3.

Coming up: A one-day Boating Safety Course will be held Saturday, April 19. Advance registration is required, so if you know people who are interested in the class, please ask them to call me.

As the war continues, your Flotilla commander has pointed out many areas that the Coast Guard needs and wants our help. Databases are being compiled to help identify those of us with specific skills that may be needed now or in the future. Operation Patriot Readiness is but one of those databases. Yes, I am still accepting these forms. If you have not done so and wish to be placed into this database, please submit the form to me. If you do not have the form and need one, contact me via telephone or email (as above) and I will see that you get the forms.

Thanks to all who have complimented the newly enhanced look of our Log. It's nice to know that it is being read and appreciated. As a volunteer, that is payment enough.

Our country's resolve is being tested, and it is our turn to stand by our nation and live up to the oath we took when joining the Auxiliary. The U.S. Coast Guard has asked us to step up and perform certain duties. Port Security Patrols, Cat's Eye Watches, and Guard Duty. Please check your schedule and see where, how and when you can contribute.

You can contact any staff officer for additional information.

Our troops are in harms way and deserve our support. Show the flag and support our fighting men and women.

From just the other side of the Hillsboro Bridge, here is a Broward County success story concerning Operation 'On Guard' from Cdr. Nancy Goodridge, the MSO Miami XO, and Capt. Watson, MSO Commander. Our Coast Guard Auxiliary Operation 'On Guard' program was a major factor in the capture of over 20 illegal migrants found near the Deerfield Beach fishing fleet dock at the Cove Marina shortly after 5:30 AM on Wednesday, Feb 19th. Auxiliarist Marshall Golnick, one of our 'On Guard' people, had previously briefed fishing fleet captains at the Cove Marina about terrorist threats and what to do about it.

Here is what happened as related by Marshall:

For several months, we have been cultivating healthy relationships with SIXPAC skippers through vessel exams and repeated public relation's visits related to Operation 'ON GUARD'. I believe it is starting to gain momentum and build success for awareness benefiting those in the maritime community and our Nation.

One of our SIXPAC 'customers', is Captain Don Dischert, owner of the 'RARIN T GO II', a 53 foot Sport Hatteras, docked at the Cove Marina in Deerfield Beach. Don was made aware of what to look for and to be 'ON GUARD'. When a suspicious 43 foot boat pulled up to the dock and then released it's illegals, Don Dischert called 911 from the back deck of his boat, and the Broward Sheriff's office responded immediately. This story was corroborated by the assistant marina manager.

Our 'On Guard' people devote their time quietly behind the scenes and most people don't even know they are there until something like this happens.

Could something like this happen in our AOR? Perhaps the boat would pull up to shore? Absolutely! Let's keep our eyes and ears open for any suspicious or threatening activities and report them in a timely manner to the authorities.

The month of March saw approximately 50 hours spent in the Radio Room guarding our boats. Many thanks to all of you who have given your time to help assure the safety of our people and vessels.

As our national and local security alert status is heightened radio watch standing will become more important to our mission of supporting the Coast Guard.

It was pointed out in the Operations Seminar that a professional approach should be employed when standing watch. Airtime should be kept to a minimum, say what needs to be said and no more. Follow procedures and correct protocols when on the radio. Refrain from trite remarks and information. For safety and security's sake always be aware that there are people monitoring our frequencies that are interested in knowing where our vessels are and what they are doing. They want to use the information for purposes that our contrary to our laws and security.

For security reasons a grid of sectors is being developed that will be used when reporting our positions on the ICW. Upon its completion all Watch Standers and Coxswains will be forwarded copies for implementation. A similar scheme is being considered for ocean use.

It has been suggested that the Watch Stander schedule that is sent out weekly be provided to the Coxswains. This practice will begin in April

A note to all trainees, please let me know when you are available to stand watch in order to receive your qualification as Watch Stander. The opportunity is there, If not you then who? If not now then when?

The ADF project is temporarily held up as permits are needed to be secured from the City of Boca Raton.

I appreciate everyone's help and cooperation, remember teamwork without the team "Is just work."
